

2017-2018

Saint John School of Little Canada

Welcome to Saint John School of Little Canada. We strive to provide students with a strong Catholic foundation and an excellent academic program, with the support and involvement of the family. We look forward to helping your child Soar to Success!

- Saint John Preschool has been operating since 1995
- The program is housed as Saint John School in Little Canada, MN, as we serve children in preschool to grade eight.
- You are welcome to choose our preschool for your child as an independent program or as part of a full range educational plan.
- You need not be a member of Saint John Parish to enroll your child in our program.
- We are accredited by NEAYC and have earned a 4 Star Parent Aware Rating.
- You may inquire with Ramsey County to learn more about tuition assistance for this program.

We are currently accepting applications for the 2017-2018 school year.

To be considered for admissions:

Please visit our website at sjolc.org.

Select the Prospective Parents Tab.

Once on the Prospective Parents page, go to the section above the slideshow and find the green TADS button.

Click on this TADS button to link you to the online application site.

We will consider applications in the order they are received. All of our tuition and fees are billed through TADS. Families returning to our school have been sent a separate link through email to enroll their students.
